

Cordoba Academy Newsletter - October 2020

Getting Back Into the Swing of Things...

- Our onboarding process with parents, students and staff for e-learning has been completed successfully and classes are running smoothly Alhamdulillah. We thank the parents for working with us patiently as we adapt to the new learning environment!
- Our Board Members are working closely with the Edmonds School District on a strategy to provide educational resources for local Muslim families. Please let us know what types of resources you would like for your child(ren). We will be sending out a survey asking for your input in the coming weeks!
- Virtual Sunday School has begun through Snoqualmie Mosque and Alhamdulillah we have received positive feedback from the parents on the program.

Story Time!

Mufti Saeed hosts a short interactive Islamic Story Time for Cordoba Academy students from Monday-Thursday at 2:30 PM PST. We are opening the event to the rest of the children in our community to join and participate with us! To receive the invitation link for the Google Hangout event, click here.

A beautiful poem about Fall by our marvelous 5th grade student, Amina Sheikh!

Fall is Here

By Amina sheikh

*Fall is here
The wind is near
It might be storming
But the leaves are transforming
The new colors on the trees
Feel the breeze
Pushing on your face
Just embrace
The new season
Well I have a reason
Play indoor games
This is a season of fame
I am really happy and excited
But I need to be guided
Because of the fast wind
It has a mind
of its own
it might just keep you on the phone
but remember
it's almost December
and winter will fall.*
